On February 19, 2014, Special Agents(SA) Kevin Small and Jarrell Perry and Task Force Officer Rudy Mora were at the Amtrak Train Station in Albuquerque, New Mexico when Amtrak Train Number 4 arrived from Los Angeles, California.

SA Small eventually boarded Sleeper Car 431 and stood in the vestibule area. An unknown male, later identified as Eddie MITCHELL walked out to the vestibule area and stood by SA Small. SA Small showed MITCHELL his Drug Enforcement Administration badge which was hanging around his neck and visible to the public. SA Small identified himself as a police officer and asked for and received permission to speak to him. After a short conversation SA Small asked for and received permission to search MITCHELL's luggage for guns, drugs and contraband. MITCHELL stated his luggage was in his room, room 14 of Sleeper Car 431. A search of the luggage was negative. SA Small then asked for and received permission to search his room. That search was also negative.

SA Small then asked MITCHELL if he had anything strapped to him and MITCHELL replied "no sir". SA Small asked MITCHELL "would you give me permission to search you real fast". MITCHELL did not verbally respond but immediately held up his hands up by his head indicating to SA Small that he was consenting to a search. SA Small searched MITCHELL's body and located a large bundle near his lower stomach area which SA Small immediately knew to be illegal drugs. SA Small and SA Perry arrested MITCHELL.

MITCHELL was transported to the Albuquerque District Office of the Drug Enforcement Administration where a complete search of MITCHELL was completed. SA Small seized 1.20 gross kilograms of suspected cocaine from MITCHELL's person. SA Small field tested the suspected cocaine and received a positive reaction for cocaine.
